A large gathering made a most delightful evening for all present.

Mrs. James is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. L. P. Cooke.

Wilmington Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Wilmington, N. C., May 20.—The first launch party heralding the nearness of summer was given Wednesday afternoon on the natty little craft, the Virginia Dare, and the merry crowd was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Horace Emerson.

Among those in the party were Miss Marian Nelson, of Forest, Va., and Misses Elise Emerson, Doralde Borden, Margaret Smith, Theo. Cantwell and Etta Brand, and James B. Atkins, Thomas F. Wood, R. W. Hicks, Jr., Alan Emerson, Clem Brown and Louise T. Moore.

The Alumnae Society of the State Normal gave a delightful lawn party Thursday afternoon, the spacious and pretty lawn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Yates, on North Fourth Street, being the merry scene.

The big event of the week transpired to-day, it being the usual 20th of May celebration by the Wilmington Light Infantry. The scene is Wrightsville Beach, and thereto the company journeyed early, many events having been arranged on the program, including a target shoot between picked squads from the regular company and the reserve corps. To-night a big ball at Lumina was given. The committee having in charge the big affair consisted of E. C. Hines (chairman), Z. K. Bell, H. L. O'Neill, R. H. Grant, Jr., and J. B. Lynch.

One of the events of next week of particular interest, as well as much pleasure, will be the unveiling of a tablet marking the site of Fort Johnston, down the river, the tablet having been erected by the North Carolina Society of the Colonial Dames. The unveiling ceremony will occur Wednesday, and the steamer Wilmington will make a special trip to the scene from Wilmington.
